INITIATIVE®

EVE•NGO

Statment

ver 4.0 AUG 2026

Awareness
Development Support

eve (Hawa in Arabic and Kurdish) is a non-profit, non-partisan, independent NGO based in Kurdistan Region of Iraq.

The organization's mission is to increase public awareness, develop personal skills, and create jobs through financial and academic support.

Founder: Suham Mustafa Hassan
Founded: 2022

1 Goals

- Create a social network to showcase skills and introduce product and project owners.
- Promote the academic aspect by opening training courses (digital and in-person), providing the spiritual and academic support that society needs to raise their awareness level.
- Print magazines and booklets of high quality and affordable prices.
- Encourage women through annual awards in twelve different fields.
- Raise financial support to invest in projects so that low-income and income-disabled people can benefit or be able to work in it.

2 Activities

- Job creation, education, production, and marketing.
- All forms of peaceful civil action, research, and consultancy.
- Holding conferences, seminars, workshops, meetings, and dialogues.
- Creating websites and social media and creating job opportunities.
- Publishing books, magazines, and booklets, as well as creating video and digital content.

3 Principles

- Comply with international laws on human rights principles.
- Comply with the applicable laws in the Kurdistan Region of Iraq.
- Preserve the public and supreme interests of the Kurdistan Region of Iraq.
- Branches outside the region are subject to the laws applicable to their place of operation.

4 Membership

- Members must be residents of the Kurdistan Region of Iraq.
- Must be 18 years of age or older and legally competent.
- Believe in the bylaws and follow their instructions.

5 Rights and Duties of Members

Members have the right to:

- Participate in organizational meetings.
- Vote within the organization in accordance with the bylaws.
- Protest against organizational decisions.
- Be eligible for internal organizational positions and ranks.
- Benefit from all non-profit benefits of the organization.

Members are obliged to:

- Work within the framework of human rights protection.
- Actively participate in organizational activities.
- Not be guilty of murder.
- Work for the public interest and not use the name of the organization for private interests.

6 Structure and Functioning

The organization's structure is as follows:

- Founding Committee: Consists of three or more people, the organization's founders.
- General Assembly: Consists of all members of the organization.
- Executive Committee: Consists of the president, vice president, and managers.

The powers of the founding committee are as follows:

- Establishment of the organization. • Dissolution with the vote of 1+50 founders.
- Making proposals to the executive committee.
- Monitoring and evaluating the activities of the organization.

The powers of the general assembly are as follows:

- Election of the president, vice president, department heads, and (2) reserve members.

The powers of the executive committee are as follows:

- Responsibility for the administrative and financial affairs of the organization between two election periods.
- Can merge with another organization or form a network with a majority of members (50+1).
- Preparing, drafting, approving, and promoting projects and making decisions on representatives to sign contracts.
- Upon the proposal of a majority of the executive committee, new branches can be opened in cities and districts or outside the Kurdistan Region of Iraq.
- The organization can be dissolved or its name and emblem can be changed with the decision of 1+50 of the executive committee.
- The internal rules of the organization can be changed or amended with the decision of 1+50 of the executive committee.

7 Accounting and Revenue

The organization's income comes from the following sources:

- Membership fees.
- Activity income such as income from festivals, exhibitions, sports games, or any other activity.
- The amount received for the issuance of a certificate is returned at the cost of issuing the certificate.
- The organization provides annual financial reports to the NGO office and provides accurate information and presentations for projects supported by the government.

8 Supervision and Accounting

- All of the organization's revenues will be through a bank account opened in the name of the organization.
- The organization manages its financial accounting system through its annual budget.
- The organization provides its annual financial report to the NGO office and is audited by the Financial Supervision Office in the region.
- For projects supported by the Kurdistan Regional Government, the organization

eve·NGO

Linktr.ee/eveNGO